Code of Conduct

We recognize the high calling of Christian leadership. Our goal for chapter leaders, board members and regional chaplains are for them to be "above reproach" when representing the CSBA.

James 3:1 "...you know that we who teach will be judged more strictly."

Romans 14:19-21, "Let us therefore make every effort to do what leads to peace and mutual edification... All food is clean, but it is wrong for a man to eat anything that causes someone else to stumble. It is better not to ... do anything else that will cause your brother to fall."

Our words and actions may have a significant impact on others. Therefore, we must be deliberate in avoiding negative influences. When in doubt, we will err on the side of conservative discretion. The following guidelines support our attempt to be above reproach:

1. Alcohol consumption or illegal drug use cannot be a part of any CSBA event.
2. We will refrain from foul language, cursing, sexual innuendo and remarks that might cause a believer to stumble while attending a CSBA function.
3. Clothing should not represent any company or establishment in conflict with this code of conduct.
4. We will guard against divisive communication. If conflicts arise, we will resolve it according to the principles in Matthew 18.

I agree with and will abide by the above Code of Conduct.
